It is emphatically a guide to health and longevity, and should be in every family. The Tribune says:

"This JOURNAL is bold, earnest and enthusiastic—written with the zeal and energy that nothing but sincere conviction can inspire. In its whole tone and spirit it presents a noble contrast to the vayueness, indecision and technical prattle of many professed scientific journals. The facts which it brings forward in over whenlong abundance are sufficient to startle the old medical profession out of the deepest alumber."
